The atmosphere of the old-style European bistro

Rétro is our interpretation of a return to the past, unifying an atmosphere of old-style European bistro with the sense of a bygone era of tabletop retroism.

The recent trend towards vintage style has taken the tabletop industry by storm. Michelin-starred restaurants and five star hotels the world over are getting on board with stepping back into the past towards the rustic tablescape.

With its stonewashed finish, the contrast between the texture and effect of Rétro marries perfectly with the diverse nuances of modern porcelain, allowing you to create a tablescape that combines the old with the new.

Our ability to customize Rétro with the stonewash finish achieves this particular 'distressed' look, giving a pleasingly worn feel to the flatware which will translate into your guests feeling relaxed and comfortable at the table.
